Chapter 9

THE STORY OF ROBINSON CRUSOE

C. Answer these questions in detail. (Long answers)

Q1. Describe what happened when the storm arose?

Ans. When the storm arose, the ship was tossed about for many days. Suddenly, they struck a bank of sand and the sea broke over the ship in such a way that they thought it would break into pieces. They lowered a boat into the raging sea but a huge wave struck them so furiously that it upset the boat at once.

Q2. How did he manage to bring provisions from the ship?

Ans. He knew that he must take all provisions from the ship. So he made a raft strong enough to bear a moderate weight, then he lowered upon it three seamen's chest and filled them with provisions. With a great deal of trouble, he succeeded in landing them safely.
